SLAUGHTER HOUSE INSPECTION.

Was Found to be Sanitary, Clean and Neat.

Yesterday the English slaughter house 1 1/2 miles east of the city was visited and inspected by Mayor Byrd, the city board of health, consisting of Drs. J. W. Swindell, J. A. Smith, C. M. Cook, Jno. E. Williams, T. J. Miller, J. H. Arnold, E. P. Beeson, J. A. Bush and Will Cantrell, and Aldermen Arnold and Wilson.

President Dr. Beeson directed the sanitary committee to make an inspection of the premises, which they did and then made the following report:

"We, the sanitary committee, and the slaughter house and grounds, first class sanitary condition."

complementary to Mr. English and Mr. Arnold—John E. Williams, (Will Cantrell), J. A. Smith, J. A. Bush, Sanitary Committee."

After the committee had made their report Mr. English invited them all to the slaughter house where a dinner was served of barbecued mutton, bread, pickles, cheese, onions, crackers, boiled custard and cake, with many Arnold master of ceremonies.

On entering the slaughter house one was impressed with the cleanliness of the surroundings. Everything was clean, nice and hygienic and was void of the ordinary slaughter house smell. The guests ate at the table which was placed where the beefs were killed and everything was the same as if you were in a clean kitchen at your home. The beef is brought into this clean and sanitary room and slaughtered and the blood is run into a pipe which carries it off over 100 yards from the house, leaving nothing in the room to breed germs. After each beef is slaughtered the room is thoroughly cleaned and the meat hung in a dust and fly proof room where the wagon, which is thoroughly sanitary and brought to the Bag's market in this city.

THE BEREANS CLUB.

Was Entertained Yesterday by Mrs. F. J. Phillips.

The Bereans club was entertained yesterday by Mrs. F. J. Phillips at her elegant home on South Wesley street with a good attendance.

Roll call was answered by quotations on Thanksgiving. The lesson was on old Testament history by characters, and the 7th and 8th chapters of St. Matthew.

As a Thanksgiving offering the ladies of the club will send a box of articles next Tuesday to an orphanage. Nice refreshments were served and the ladies dispersed to their homes.

Mrs. J. P. Hank, of Anson, was an out of town guest.

BUILDING CHURCHES.

A Greenville Architect Has Contracts For Three Edifices.

George Lindsey closed a contract yesterday for a handsome $20,000 church to be built at once at Sulphur Springs by the Methodists. The church will be of brick and stone and have a seating capacity of eight hundred.

Mr. Lindsey is just completing a $20,000 church for the Baptists at Gilmer, and has just begun a church in the same town for the Methodist to cost $20,000. All of these churches are of brick and will be finished in the latest modern styles.

A DELIGHTFUL PARTY.

The Entre Nous and Bachelor Girls Clubs Entertained Yesterday.

Mrs. H. T. Clark and Misses Annie and Lorraine Williams were the charming hostesses to the Entre Nous and Bachelor Girls clubs yesterday afternoon at the Williams home on Park street. The rooms were beautiful with decorations of white, yellow and lavender carnations.

The game of Forty-two was played with enthusiasm and at close of the games the club prize a cut glass bell was won by Mrs. Will Reeves. The guest prize a cut glass perfume bottle was presented to Miss Wynne of Fort Worth, the guest of the Misses Williams and in whose honor the entertainment was given.

Dainty refreshments were served of

THE MARTHA JUNIORS.

Announced the Engagement of One of the Members.

The Martha Juniors met yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. J. D. Langford with a good attendance.

The engagement of Miss Sue Cook, a pretty and popular member of the club, to Mr. Dies, was announced, the marriage to take place Nov. 26 at Dallas.

The club had no lesson nor program yesterday but just enjoyed a pleasant social time, and after partaking of a delicious salad course returned to their homes.

THE HOLINESS CONVENTION

Opened With a Lively Praise Service and Then Took up Business.

At 8:30 yesterday morning the holiness convention was opened at the city hall again with a half hour Bible study conducted by Rev. John Threlkeld, which was enjoyed by all, after which a lively praise service was held. The regular business was then resumed.

The committee on perpetuation and limitation then reported, and a report of which report was deferred until the afternoon session.

At 11 o'clock Rev. McCallough of Dallas gave the orphanage address, which was stirring and victorious. After this a good offering was made for the orphanage located here. We are glad to report that association is characterized by a wave of future peace and victory. We also have the pleasure of enlightening at this association, such representative men as Rev. Bud Robinson, Capt. Wm. E. Fisher, Rev. Geo. McCullough, Rev. J. G. Upmeyer and many others that time and space will not permit us to mention.

In the afternoon Rev. P. L. Pierce began the message and Rev. Wm. E. Fisher, superintendent of Abilene district preached at 7:30 last night at the college auditorium.

Today's program is as follows:
8:30 a. m.—Bible study.
9:30 a. m.—General business. Election of officers.
11:00 a. m.—Praising.
1:30 p. m.—General business.
3:00 p. m.—Educational report and address.
7:00 p. m.—Praise service and missionary rally.
